

I wish to register my opposition to the conglomeratization of media sources under the proposed easing of regulation of broadcast ownership. America is best served by a variety of news sources and opinions. We need to learn from diverse perspectives. Objective information is critical to smart decisions. We need local broadcast media to be owned by several sources not large corporations.

Thank you for the opportunity to comment on the use of public airwaves.

Regards,

Laurie Craig